3-1-13.5. Conflicts of interest.

(1) A director does not have a conflict of interest and is entitled to vote on any matter for which the action to be taken or decision to be made by the board relates to matters which have application to other members which are similarly situated to the director or to the member association which the director represents.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (1), each director on the board of an association has a duty to serve the association as a whole and not the individual members of the association. This duty applies even when the director's own personal interests as a member or representative of a member may be contrary to the interests of the association.

(3) (a) As used in this section, "interested director" means a director who has a direct financial interest in a transaction or contract being considered by the board or committee of an association, whether as a member of the association or as a representative of a member association.

(b) Interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee which authorizes, approves, or ratifies a contract or transaction.

(c) Interested directors shall be excluded from a board or committee meeting during the discussion and vote on a matter in which the director has a direct financial interest, unless a majority of the disinterested directors on the board vote that the interested director may remain at the meeting.

(4) Except as provided in Subsections (1) and (3)(c), every contract or transaction between the association and one or more of its directors shall be void, or voidable by the association, if:

(a) the director is present at or participates in the discussion at the board or committee meeting which authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction; or

(b) the vote of the interested director is counted in the vote of the board or the committee.

(5) Notwithstanding Subsection (4), a transaction between the association and one or more of its directors is not void, or voidable by the association, if:

(a) the material facts as to the relationship or interest of the director and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or the committee, and the board or committee in good faith authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors, even if the disinterested directors are less than a quorum;

(b) the material facts as to the relationship or interest of the director and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the members of the association entitled to vote, and the contract or transaction is specifically authorized, approved, or ratified in good faith by a vote of the members; or

(c) the contract or transaction is fair to the association.

3-1-13.6. Quorum and voting.

(1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number, a quorum of a board of directors consists of:

(a) a majority of the fixed number of directors if the association has a fixed board size; or

(b) a majority of the number of directors prescribed, or if no number is prescribed, a majority of the number in office immediately before the meeting begins.

(2) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is an action of the board of directors, unless the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or this chapter require the vote of a greater number of directors.

(3) A director present at a meeting of the board of directors when action is taken is considered to have assented to the action taken at the meeting, unless:

(a) the director votes against the action taken at the meeting;

(b) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly on arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to any action taken at the meeting;

(c) the director contemporaneously requests his dissent or abstention to any specific action to be entered into the minutes of the meeting; or

(d) the director gives to the presiding officer written notice of his dissent or abstention before adjournment of the meeting or within 24 hours after adjournment.

(4) A director who votes in favor of an action taken may not dissent or abstain under Subsection (3).

Enacted by Chapter 204, 1994 General Session

3-1-13.7. Resignation of directors.

(1) A director may resign by giving written notice to the association.

(2) A resignation of a director is effective when the notice is received by the association, unless the notice specifies a future effective date.

Enacted by Chapter 204, 1994 General Session

3-1-13.8. Director committees.

(1) (a) Unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, a board of directors may create one or more committees and appoint members of the board of directors to serve on them.

(b) Each committee shall have two or more members who serve at the discretion of the board of directors.

(2) The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it shall be approved by the greater of:

(a) a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken; or

(b) the number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under Section 3-1-13.6.

(3) Sections 3-1-13.2 and 3-1-13.6 shall apply to committees and their members.

(4) The board of directors, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws may provide the scope of the authority that each committee may exercise.

(5) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in Section 3-1-13.3.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session

3-1-14. Removal of director.

Any member may ask for the removal of a director by filing charges with the secretary or president of the association, together with a petition signed by 10 per centum of the members requesting the removal of the director in question. The removal shall be voted upon at the next meeting of the members, and the association may remove the director by a majority vote of the members voting thereon. The director whose removal is requested shall be served with a copy of the charges not less than 10 days prior to the meeting and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person and by counsel and to present evidence; and the persons requesting the removal shall have the same opportunity. In case the bylaws provide for election of directors by districts, then the petition for removal of a director shall be signed by 20 per centum of the members residing in the district from which he was elected. The board shall call a special meeting of the members residing in that district to consider the removal of the director; and by a majority vote of the members of that district voting thereon the director in question shall be removed from office.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session

3-1-15. Officers.

The board shall elect a president, a secretary and a treasurer, and may elect one or more vice-presidents, and such other officers as may be authorized in the bylaws. Unless the articles otherwise specifically provide, the president and at least one of the vice-presidents shall be directors, but a vice-president who is not a director cannot succeed to or fill the office of president. Any two of the offices of vice-president, secretary and treasurer may be combined in one person.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session

3-1-15.1. Duties of officers.

Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws, or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties prescribed by the directors or by the officer authorized by the board of directors to prescribe the duties of other officers.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session

3-1-16. Removal of officer.

Any member may bring charges of misconduct or incompetency against an officer by filing them with the secretary or president of the association, together with a petition signed by 10 per centum of the members requesting the removal of the officer in question. The directors shall vote upon the removal of the officer at the first meeting of the board held after the hearing on the charges, and the officer may be removed by a majority vote, notwithstanding any contract the officer may have with the association, which shall terminate upon his removal, anything in the contract to the contrary notwithstanding. The officer against whom such charges are made shall be served with a copy of the charges not less than 10 days prior to the meeting, and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person and by counsel, and to present evidence, and the persons making the charges shall have the same opportunity.

No Change Since 1953

3-1-16.1. Resignation of officers.

(1) An officer may resign by giving written notice of the resignation to the association.

(2) A resignation of an officer is effective when the notice is received by the association, unless the notice specifies a future effective date.

(3) If a resignation is to be effective as of a future date, the board of directors may:

(a) allow the officer to remain in office until that date and fill the pending vacancy before the effective date, providing that the successor does not take office until the effective date; or

(b) remove the officer prior to the effective date and fill the resulting vacancy.

Enacted by Chapter 204, 1994 General Session

3-1-17. Contracts with association.

(1) (a) The bylaws may require members to execute contracts with the association in which the members agree to patronize the facilities created by the association, and to sell all or a specified part of their products to or through it, or to buy all or a specified part of their supplies from or through the association or any facilities created by it.

(b) If the members contract to sell through the association, the fact that for certain purposes the relation between the association and its members may be one of agency does not prevent the passage from the member to the association of absolute and exclusive title to the products which are the subject matter of the contract.

(c) Such title shall pass to the association upon delivery of the product, or at any other time specified in the contract.

(d) If the period of the contract exceeds three years, the bylaws and the contracts executed thereunder shall specify a reasonable period, not less than 10 days in each year, after the third year, during which the member, by giving to the association such reasonable notice as the association may prescribe, may withdraw from the association; provided, that if the bylaws or contracts executed hereunder so specify, a member may not withdraw from the association while indebted thereto.

(e) In the absence of such a withdrawal provision, a member may withdraw at any time after three years.

(2) The contract may fix, as liquidated damages, which may not be regarded as penalties, specific sums to be paid by the members to the association upon the breach of any provision of the contract regarding the use of any facilities of the association or the sale, delivery, handling, or withholding of products; and may further provide that the member who breaks his contract shall pay all costs, including premiums for bonds, and reasonable attorney's fees, to be fixed by the court, in case the association prevails in any action upon the contract.

(3) (a) A court of competent jurisdiction may grant an injunction to prevent the breach or further breach of the contract by a member and may decree specific performance thereof.

(b) Pending the adjudication of such an action and upon filing a verified complaint showing the breach or threatened breach, and a bond in such form and amount as may be approved by the court, the court may grant a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction against the member.

(4) No remedy, either legal or equitable, herein provided for, shall be exclusive, but the association may avail itself of any and all such remedies, at the same or different times, in any action or proceeding.

(5) In any action upon such marketing contracts, it shall be conclusively presumed that a landowner or landlord or lessor is able to control the delivery of products produced on his land by tenants or others, whose tenancy or possession or work on such land or the terms of whose tenancy or possession or labor thereon were created or changed after execution by the landowner or landlord or lessor of such a marketing contract; and in such actions, the foregoing remedies for nondelivery or breach shall lie and be enforceable against such landowner, landlord, or lessor.

(6) (a) The association may file contracts to sell agricultural products to or through the association in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the products are produced.

(b) If the association has uniform contracts with more than one member in any county, it may, in lieu of filing the original contracts, file the affidavit of its president, vice president or secretary, containing or having attached thereto:

(i) a true copy of the uniform contract entered into with its members producing such product in that county; and

(ii) the names of the members who have executed such contract and a description of the land on which the product is produced, if such description is contained in the contract.

(c) The association may file from time to time thereafter affidavits containing revised or supplementary lists of the members producing such product in that county without setting forth therein a copy of the uniform contract but referring to the filed or recorded copy thereof.

(d) All affidavits filed under this section shall state in substance that they are filed pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(e) The county recorder shall file such affidavits and make endorsements thereon and record and make entries thereof in the same manner as is required by law in the case of chattel mortgages, and he shall compile and make available for public inspection a convenient index containing the names of all signers of such contracts, and collect for his services hereunder the same fees as for chattel mortgages.

(f) The filing of any such contract, or such affidavit, shall constitute constructive notice of the contents thereof, and of the association's title or right to the product embraced in such contract, to all subsequent purchasers, encumbrancers, creditors, and to all persons dealing with the members with reference to such product.

(g) No title, right, or lien of any kind shall be acquired to or on the product thereafter except through the association or with its consent, or subject to its rights; and the association may recover the possession of such property from any and all subsequent purchasers, encumbrancers, and creditors, and those claiming under them, in whose possession the same may be found, by any appropriate action for the recovery of personal property, and it may have relief by injunction and for damages.

Amended by Chapter 378, 2010 General Session

3-1-18. Inducing breach of contract -- False reports -- Penalty.

A person or corporation whose officers or employees knowingly induce or attempt to induce a member or stockholder of an association to violate his marketing contract with the association, or who intentionally spreads false reports about its finances or management:

- (1) is guilty of a class A misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than $2,500 for each offense; and
- (2) may be held liable in a civil action to the association.

Amended by Chapter 202, 1994 General Session

3-1-19. Association not in restraint of trade -- Right to disseminate information.

(1) No association complying with the terms hereof shall be deemed to be a conspiracy, or a combination in restraint of trade, or an illegal monopoly; or be deemed to have been formed for the purpose of lessening competition or fixing prices arbitrarily, nor shall the contracts between the association and its members, or any agreement authorized in this act, be construed as an unlawful restraint of trade, or as part of a conspiracy or combination to accomplish an improper or illegal purpose or act.

(2) An association may acquire, exchange, interpret and disseminate to its members, to other cooperative associations, and otherwise, past, present, and prospective crop, market, statistical, economic, and other similar information relating to the business of the association, either directly or through an agent created or selected by it or by other associations acting in conjunction with it.

(3) An association may advise its members in respect to the adjustment of their current and prospective production of agricultural commodities and its relation to the prospective volume of consumption, selling prices and existing or potential surplus, to the end that every market may be served from the most convenient productive areas under a program of orderly marketing that will assure adequate supplies without undue enhancement of prices or the accumulation of any undue surplus.

Amended by Chapter 324, 2010 General Session

3-1-20. Voluntary dissolution -- Distribution of assets -- Proceedings.

- (1) (a) An association may be dissolved:

(b) The court may specify:

(i) appropriate notice of the time and place for the submission of claims against the association, which notice may require creditors of and claimants against the association to submit accounts and demands in writing at the specified place by a specific day, which date shall be at least 40 days from the date of service or first publication of the notice;

(ii) the payment or satisfaction of claims and demands against the association, or the retention of money for such purpose;

(iii) the administration of trusts or the disposition of the property held in trust by or for the association;

(iv) the sale and disposition of any remaining property of the association and the distribution or division of the property or its proceeds among the members or persons entitled to them; and

(v) other matters related to the dissolution.

(c) All orders and judgments shall be binding upon the association, its property and assets, trustees, members, creditors, and all claimants against it.

(3) On dissolution, the assets of the association shall be distributed in the following manner and order:

(a) to pay the association's debts and expenses;

(c) to pay patrons on a pro rata basis the amount of any patronage capital credited to their accounts; and

(d) if there is a surplus, to distribute it among those patrons who have been members of the association at any time during the last five years preceding dissolution or for a longer period of time if determined by the board of directors to be practicable, on the basis of patronage during that period.

(4) After the final settlement by the trustees, the association shall be considered dissolved and shall cease to exist.
